

NOX ARCHAIST

Towns, Villages, Castles & Keeps

Maps by Rikkles the Cartographer

Hello, Traveler of Vali.

I, Rikkles the Cartographer, am stuck in this Foolery Castle on a misbegotten island in the far West of the Vali region, having been shipwrecked at a very inopportune time. I was mapping the civilized places of the region, and had finished all the civilian, good people areas, when that drunk captain got his ship to mate with a rock the size of his ego.

This is a copy of my latest drawings. Unfortunately I have not yet secured access to the thieves guild of Bayport, they don't trust me.

Nor could I map the castles' dungeons, I was threatened with getting there in chains. And I couldn't find hardy adventurers to help me get to the less savory ruins to discuss life and death with the bandits and undead.

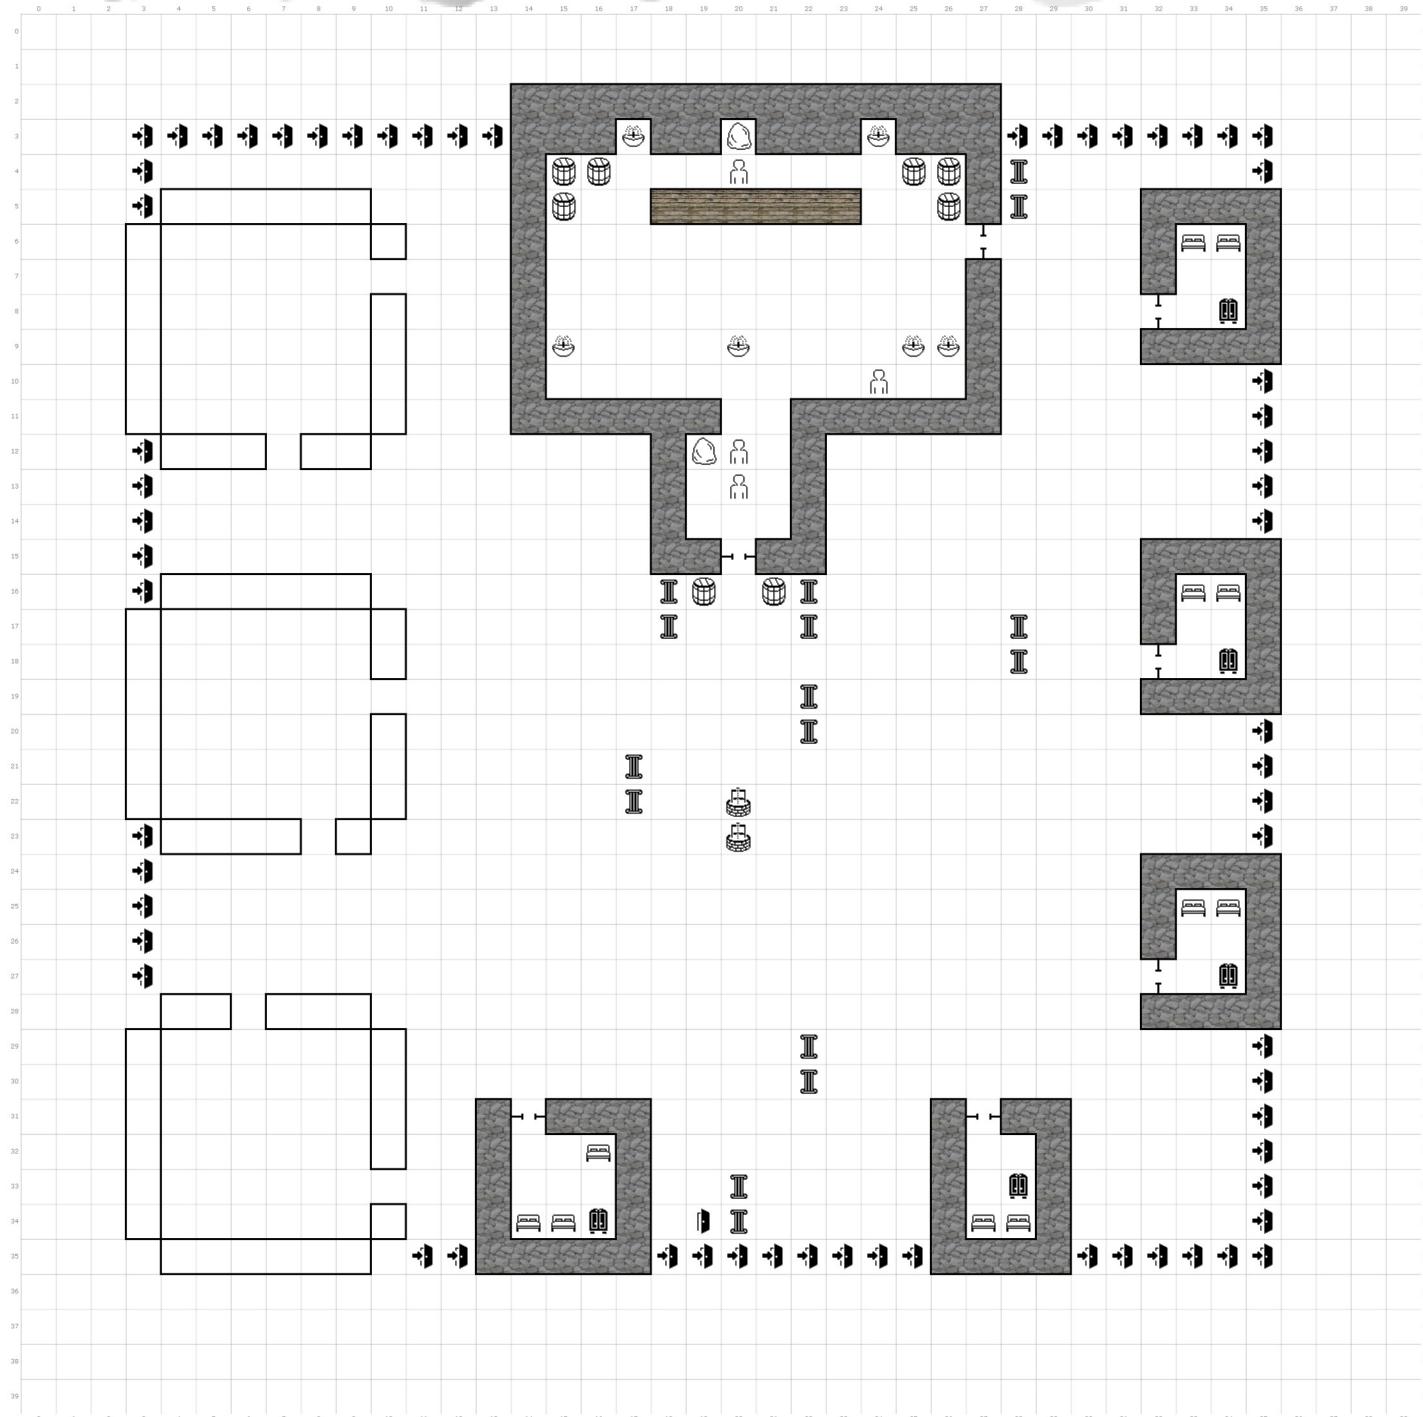

That said, I hope this is useful to you, traveler. I would enjoy some feedback on the Nox Archaist Discord server, or on Twitter as @RikRetro.

Now if only I could figure out what word will get those fools off my back and enjoy a cold pint with my newfound friend, the exiled NPC $68 !

Rikkles
